Irish Malt Whiskies

Irish whiskies can be characterised by their smooth taste of honeyed malt and barley, which is partly a result of their triple distillation process.

Old Midleton Distillery, County Cork

Green Spot	23.5
Full bodied with no apologies. Oily linseed cooled by strains of gentle menthol, joined by some spiciness towards the end.
Jameson 18yo Limited Reserve	38.5
A complex taste and lingering finale of wood spice and toffee. Matured in a combination of bourbon and Oloroso sherry casks.
Jameson Black Barrel	15.5
A mellow pot still whiskey with nutty, sherry flavours and a rich lasting finish.
Jameson Caskmates IPA Edition	14
Matured in Irish Pale Ale seasoned barrels. There is a lemony, hoppy floral nose and finish. Slick and sweet with vanilla notes that tame down those other flavours quite a bit.
Jameson Caskmates Stout Edition	14
As expected, there is the initial sweet mouth coating typical of Irish Pot Still Whiskey. The effect of the beer cask finish becomes apparent with the subtle touch of hops and cocoa beans.
Jameson Single Pot Still	18.5
Malted and unmalted barley is triple distilled for a rich, unmistakable silkiness with distinctive pot still spiciness. Matured in a combination of three different types of virgin oak (Irish, European and American), in addition to ex-bourbon and ex-sherry casks. The finished result is a whiskey that is equal parts complex and smooth.
Midleton Very Rare	45
Mandarin and nutmeg with baking notes from warm raisin scones and old fashioned heavy cake. Savoury and dignified finish with touches of clove and green pepper.
Paddy	18
A soft malted nose with distinctive nutty malt and charred wood on the palate.
Redbreast 12yo	22.5
A complex nose of spicy fruit with toasted wood noted and an assertive palate of spice and barley.

Old Midleton Distillery, County Cork

Redbreast 15yo 30

Aromas of fruit compote, cinnamon and clove. Good clean streak running through it, but the rich spiciness dominates. A dry, peppery, spicy finish.

Redbreast Lustau Edition25.5

Rich infusion of dark fruits, prunes, dates and figs with liquorice, marzipan, toasted oak and Redbreast spices. Sweetness and pot-still spices endure while oloroso sherry and Spanish oak have the last word.

Tullamore Dew13

A spicy yet mild malted blend with a short finish of nuts and lingering vanilla notes.

Yellow Spot..... 24

Bright gold, brass appearance. Gorgeous aromatics with notes of wild honey, custard, creme caramel and almond flan. Given a little time sees some lovely fruits emerge, namely apple peel and pear. Entry is oily, buttery in turn as the spices develop in a double wave. Flavours of vanilla custard tart feature enlivened by soft spices. Outstanding length and balance concluding with impressive persistence.

Hyde Whiskey Distillery, County Cork

Hyde No. 3 The Aras Cask Irish Whiskey16.5

Cinnamon and clove with succulent sweet caramel flavours. Complex and spicy with sweet American bourbon notes.

Hyde No.4 President's Cask Irish Whiskey18.5

A 6 year old single malt Irish whiskey, released as part of the Hyde range. The No.4 Presidents cask expression has enjoyed a finishing period in casks that previously were home to some tasty rum, and have imparted notes of zesty tropical Caribbean fruits, vanilla and butter toffee.

Powerscourt Distillery, County Cork

Powers Gold Label.....19

Powers Gold Label is a Whiskey of superior quality with its distinctive pot still, spicy and honeyed flavour. Triple distilled and matured in specially selected American oak casks for richness and complexity.

Teeling Distillery, County Dublin

- Teeling Pot Still..... 18.5
Aromas of hibiscus flowers, honeycomb, white grape flesh, grapefruit and citrus. On the palate there are hints of lychee, more white grape along with white pepper, roasted peaches and baked biscuits, all wrapped up with a dry finish, hints of spice, roasted almonds and maple sugar lingering in the mouth.
- Teeling Single Grain 17.5
Spice and fruit notes mingle with an underlying sweet nose with a dry finish dominated by wood and spice.
- Teeling Single Malt..... 19.5
Notes of melon, figs, toffee and lemon. A long finish with sweetness in harmony with dry tannins.
- Teeling Small Batch..... 15.5
An inviting nose where vanilla and spice dance with a slightly moorish and sweet spice finish complimented by woody undertones.
- Teeling Stout Cask 18.5
Chocolatey and rich, with light hints of rye spice. Creamy caramel, vanilla, layers of orange and plum.

Dublin Liberties Distillery, County Dublin

- Dead Rabbit Whiskey 16.5
Created by the Dublin Liberties Distillery and founders of the New York cocktail bar “Dead Rabbit Saloon”. A blend of malt and grain whiskeys, matured first in bourbon casks before a finish in virgin American-oak casks for an extra kick of spice.
- The Dublin Liberties 15
This 10-year-old single malt is abounding with aromas of delicate honey, powdered sugar and apple blossom. Finished in 30 year old sherry casks. Try this straight up, with just a drop of water.

Roe & Co Distillery, County Dublin

- Roe & Co 13.5
A premium, blended Irish Whiskey named in honour of George Roe, a pioneer of Irish Whiskey. Refined, elegant, remarkable depth and aged in bourbon casks. Gold award winner of Irish Whiskey Masters 2020.

Old Bushmills Distillery, County Antrim

Bushmills 10yo Malt	17.5
A single malt, rich and smooth with vanilla and honey notes.
Bushmills 16yo Malt	25
Sherry inspired notes of vanilla and fruit with a delicate long finish.
Bushmills 21yo Malt	45
It is a remarkably fresh and lively tasting malt, given its advanced years. Like the rest of the single malts from Bushmills, this is initially aged in both bourbon and sherry casks.
Bushmills Blackbush	14
Blended single malts matured in Oloroso sherry casks, full flavoured and slightly spicy.
The Sexton Single Malt	15
A pronounced peach and apricot note, along with sweet honey notes, some fresh citrus peel, and the dried fruit notes of raisin and fig typically associated with sherry cask matured whiskey. The finish is medium length, featuring sweet dried fruit and just a hint of bitterness.

The Shed Distillery, County Leitrim

Drumshanbo Single Malt	18
The second edition of “Galánta” which translates as “Bravery”. This time round, individually numbered bottles have been filled with triple distilled spirit after aging in single-use Kentucky Bourbon casks, hand selected by Head Distiller, Brian Taft. The distillery has imbued the malt with a delicious balance of vanilla and wood spice.
Drumshanbo Single Pot Still	15
Every precious drop of this Single Pot Still Irish Whiskey has been triple distilled at the Shed Distillery using malted Irish barley, un-malted Irish barley and Irish Barra Oats. Aged in Oloroso Sherry and Kentucky Bourbon casks with no added colour and no chill filtration, this 43% Single Pot Still is another creation proudly distilled by the Head Distiller, Brian Taft.

Cooley Distillery, County Louth

Connemara Peated Single Malt15
Balance nose of heather, honey and peat finishing long with intense oak notes.

Great Northern Distillery, Dundalk, County Louth

Grace O'Malley Blended.....13
Special blend combining multiple batches of whiskey of varying age statements from 3 - 10 yo. Each batch is matured in a range of barrel types, including French oak resulting in a blend that delivers perfect balance between flavour, age character, complexity and smoothness.

The Proclamation15
A blend of the finest grain whiskies from across Ireland. Triple distilled and aged in new American Oak, offering up a singularly smooth whiskey with a clean taste.

Riverstown, Dundalk, County Louth

The Tyrconnell Single Malt15
Fresh, malty taste with a dry finish.

Slane Distillery, County Meath

Slane.....12.5
Spicy at first but quickly sweetened with rich caramel, vanilla and butterscotch followed by a deep layer of dried fruit.

The Old Kilbeggan Distillery, County Westmeath

Kilbeggan Blended Irish Whiskey14.5
Matured in oak casks with a smooth finish from the oldest licensed distillery in the world.

Walsh Whiskey Distillery, County Carlow

The Irishman Founders Reserve 14.5

This well rounded and finely balanced whiskey goes down a treat. It gives you hints of ripe fruits and vanilla on the palate with a long, lingering finish.

The Irishman Single Malt..... 16.5

A triple distilled whiskey that's aged in a combination of bourbon and Oloroso sherry casks.

Writers Tears Copper Pot..... 15

Traditional spiced ginger, green apple notes, hidden amongst a honey milk chocolate flavour.

Glendalough Distillery, County Wicklow

Glendalough 7yo Single Malt..... 15

Rich and sweet, a premium single malt Irish whiskey with a touch of cinnamon and more than a hint of citrus fruits - think orange zest and lemon infused with vanilla ice cream.

Glendalough Single Grain Double Barrel 13.5

The finish has lingering notes of ginger spices with a faint glimmer of almond to end a complex Irish whiskey from start to finish.

Cooraclare Rackhouse, County Clare

JJ Corry 'The Gael' 18

Stone fruits and ripe red apple on the nose; spicy cooked peach and apricot on the palate, with a hint of candied orange turning to marmalade in the finish.

JJ Corry 'The Hanson' 16

Bright and approachable. Waves of vanilla fudge and toasted coconut on the nose. A fresh palate of green apples and lemongrass give way to a zingy, mineralic finish.

Tipperary Distillery, County Tipperary

Tipperary - The Rising 1916 Edition 19

An 11 year old single malt bottled by the Tipperary Distillery. This was double distilled at an undisclosed Irish distillery and has been aged in ex-bourbon barrels.

Scottish Whiskies

Characterised by their distinct smokiness and quite often pungent aromas of peat.
Scottish Whiskies can be grouped into 3 categories: Single Malts, Blended Malts & Vatted Malts.

Lowlands

Auchentoshan 3 Wood 17.5

A rich complex whisky with incredible toffee and sherry oak flavours.

Auchentoshan 12yo 16.5

A slightly dusty nose, with leafy notes and walnut or hazelnut husks. Gingery and slightly drying finish, with a pleasant lingering nuttiness

Highlands

Dalmore 12yo 18.5

Orange, marmalade and aromatic spice on the nose. On the palate it has intense citrus and hints of sweet vanilla pod to finish, enhanced by increased sherry wood for an aftertaste of great complexity.

Dalwhinnie 15yo “Meeting Place” 17

A sweet and soft heather nose followed with deep citrus and malted bread flavours.

Glenmorangie 10yo 17.5

Fruit and caramel on the nose with a warm fruity finish.

Highland Park 12yo 14.5

Matured for a minimum 12 years in Oloroso casks of European and American oak. A perfect blend of salted butterscotch, malt, spice and fruit.

The Deveron 12yo 18.5

A light, fruity and approachable spirit with some nutty notes.

Western Highlands - Isle of Jura

Jura 17.5

A palate of light smoke lying above firm, young grassy notes.

Oban 14yo 18

A well known drop. Slightly smoky in flavour, the dry palate is enhanced with a rich body of autumn fruits and spice.

Speyside

- Aberfeldy 12yo 16.5
Aged for 12 years and bottled at 40% ABV. A smooth dram of heather and honey.
- Aberfeldy 21yo 45
Has a heathery flavour that is typical of its region, but offers a diverse and well-rounded range of elements for both the palate and the nose. While restrained, there are discernible aromas of honey and ripe fruit, along with a malty overtone.
- Aultmore 12yo16
This expression offers a nose of peaches and lemonade, freshly mowed grass, linseed and milky coffee. Very fruity on the palate, mildly herbal, with toffee and light spices. The finish is medium in length, with lingering spices, fudge and finally more milky coffee.
- Balvanie 12yo.....18
Traditional vanilla and honey backed up by cinnamon spiciness, nutty sweetness and a soft layer of sherry.
- Cragganmore Single Malt.....17.5
This Speyside malt has beautiful sweet notes with an added smoky maltiness on the finish.
- Craigellachie 13yo 16.5
Light and fresh palate with nuts, malt, sulphur and sweet apples. To finish mild burning sensation, sweet apples and bits of cloves at first which turns to gentle sweetness.
- Glenfiddich 12yo “Valley of the Deer”16.5
An elegantly rounded fresh whisky with subtle oak influences and notes of pear and peat.
- Glenfiddich 15yo 20
Delicately finished for up to 12 weeks in brand new American and new Spanish oak casks. Creamy vanilla and toffee sweetness, spiced oak and layers of ripe summer fruit, creating a rich and complex single malt.
- Glenlivet Founders Reserve 18.5
A delicate, balanced whisky with floral and citrus flavours. There is a bright and fresh minerality, with lingering sweetness on the finish.
- Macallan Double Cask 12yo.....19
A blend of ex-American and Spanish oak that used to house bourbon and sherry impart a rich, yet delicate flavour onto this whisky.

Isle Of Islay

Ardbeg Single Malt 10yo17.5

Of all the Islay malt distilleries, it is Ardbeg that most encapsulates the natural aromas, tastes and the “feel” of Islay. Rich blackcurrant and blueberries, bitter almonds with espresso and star anise.

Bowmore 12yo 16.5

The heart of the Bowmore range, this exhibits some beautiful coastal notes with a gentle peat, it is the balance that the floral element presents that makes this a great entry bottling for Bowmore.

Bowmore No 1 15.5

Bowmore No 1 is produced using single malt Scotch whisky drawn exclusively from first-fill bourbon casks, imparting a creamy sweetness, blending well with the robust Islay smoke that Bowmore is known for.

Bruichladdich “Octomore 13.1” Single Malt.....21

Octomore 13.1 is as youthful and dynamic as its super-heavily peated predecessors. Distilled patiently from the 2015 harvest of 100% Scottish Mainland barley, this single malt is malted to a stratospheric 137.3 PPM and matured in the highest quality American oak casks.

Bruichladdich “The Classic Laddie” 16.5

Fruity nose of conference pear, honeydew melon and red apple, combined with sweet vanilla and the faintest hint of salinity.

Lagavulin 16yo 19.5

Powerful peat and malted sweetness followed with complex dried peat and sherry notes.

Isle of Sky

Talisker 10yo..... 18.5

Nose of maritime saltiness and peat smoke with an explosive pepper and smoke finish.

Orkney Islands

Laphroaig 10yo.....19

The quintessential Islay malt. Matured in 100% American oak, ex-bourbon casks. Bursts of maritime peat, vanilla and milk chocolate.

Scottish Blended Whiskies

Chivas Regal 12yo	15
Nose of orchard fruits and honey notes. Round, creamy palate of ripe apples, vanilla and butterscotch.
Chivas Regal 18yo	25
Uniquely rich and multi-layered whisky produced from various malt and grain whiskies from all over Scotland including the Speyside malt “Strathisla”.
Chivas Regal Extra	19
Deep in aroma, rich in fruitiness and generous in sweetness. Aged in Spanish sherry casks where the rich sweetness of the sherry reacts to the oak wood of the cask.
Johnnie Walker Black	15
A sweet & fruity aroma with a touch of peat, leading to a palate of warm grain, oak and vanilla.
Johnnie Walker Blue	45
Containing whiskies of up to 60 years, it has a mature peaty flavour with distinct malt notes.
Johnnie Walker Double Black	17
Taking its cues from the flavours of Johnnie Walker Black, while being an unquestionably smokier, more intense experience, but with deep, dark roots.
Johnnie Walker Gold	20
Notes of soft raisins and toffee, fresh malt and light cream Gold Label is as enticing as it is sensuous with full malt flavours and honeyed spices with almonds and marzipan, distinctive creaminess.
Johnnie Walker Green	19
On the palate this one suggests vanilla, nutmeg, honey, cinnamon, mild amount of peat smoke. Very round, full and silky mouthfeel. The finish is soft, wisps of smoke with malt and toffee.
Johnnie Walker Red	13
Very aromatic aroma with a robust malt and grain, slightly spicy palate.
Monkey Shoulder	13.5
A blend Balvenie, Kininvie and Glenfiddich, who lend their sweet, floral notes of vanilla and wood spice.
Teacher’s	13
High proportions of peated highland single malt give this fantastic blend a light campfire smoke character, with sweeter flavours of apples, pears and heavy honey maturity showing through.
